CONGRATULATIONS!

More good news from Cumbernauld!

David immersed by Ivan Offin

Rejoice with us! David Adekoya gave his life to Christ through baptism on Wednesday, 2nd April.

David recently came over from Nigeria to stay with his mum and brother (both of whom were baptised last year). After a few studies with Graham McDonald he decided to be baptised for the forgiveness of his sins. Keep him in your prayers as he starts his new life as a Christian.

Nicole Barr

A new Christian in Northampton!

We are so pleased to report the baptism of Daniel on Sunday, 13th April. His parents, Morteza and Sahar, became Christians many years ago when they moved to London. They have brought Daniel up to know Jesus. We rejoice with them on this happy occasion.

Daniel with Morteza and Sahar

Rejoicing in Wembley!

On Saturday, 19th April, Simeon Yariga was baptised into Christ. Simeon is the youngest son of our brother and sister Rowland and Patience. We rejoice with Simeon and his family and pray that God will bless him in his new life in Christ.

Kirkcaldy Social 2025

The Social Day at Kirkcaldy is one that many look forward to each year – and have for decades if not centuries. It seems since the pandemic that coming together once a year in Kirkcaldy is more like a family reunion. This year did not disappoint.

Close to one hundred Christians were together on Saturday, 5th April, for the annual event. As usual, the day began with steak pies, sandwiches and various pastries, along with coffee and tea, served by many from Kirkcaldy. Not only was the food excellent but even better was catching up with Christians from across Scotland (and the UK) after the winter.

The programme itself was led this year by Aaron Moyes, who interspersed our singing with videos and readings that caused us to think. The singing was ably led by Alan Moyes. Solus presented two sets of songs to encourage, and Ian Davidson from Motherwell entertained and encouraged us as only he can with various thoughts that he had collected.

The speaker this year was Adam Barr from Cumbernauld. Adam's lesson was encouraging and challenged us. He had just arrived back from the USA that morning and was able to come and speak.

The day ended with all singing together "Behold our God", a rousing song proclaiming the greatness of the God we serve.

All in all it was an excellent day of fellowship, encouragement and study – feasting in so many ways, both physically and spiritually.

Many thanks to those at Kirkcaldy who organise this each year and took care of us so well on the day. It speaks volumes that after it was over those attending lingered visiting and talking for another hour or so! We look forward to being together again next year.

George Kowfie

25th July 1970 - 24th December 2024
(Wembley)

Our brother George Kowfie was tragically killed in a car crash on 24th December 2024. On Saturday 5th April the building was full of family, friends, and Christians as we held a memorial service to honour George and to thank God for George's life and for his faithful service to the Lord. George was taken to his homeland of Ghana for burial.

Alan Dod (Thamesmead)

It is with deep sorrow that we inform you of the passing of our beloved brother, Alan Dod, on Saturday, 12th April 2025. Alan was a cherished member of our congregation, and his loss is felt deeply by all who knew him.

The funeral service will be held on 16th May at 11:00 am at the Wembley Church of Christ building. We invite all congregations to join us in honouring Alan's life and legacy.

A scholarship has been set up for potential British song leaders to attend the Keith Lancaster song leading workshop in the United States which Alan had attended several times and found very helpful prompting him to lead singing workshops here in Britain. If anyone would like to contribute to this scholarship please send donations to the church at Thamesmead, to the following account, marking it in the name of Alan Dod: Church of Christ at Thamesmead / Sort Code: 20-18-93 / Account Number: 20597112

We appreciate your support and solidarity in this time of grief. May the Lord bless you for your kindness and generosity.

THOUGHTS FROM TREVOR

1. Recently a congregation saw that the communion bread had small red spots on it, and wondered if by some miracle or other that the red were spots of the blood of Christ. The bread was scientifically inspected and found to be not blood but red fungus growing because it had been kept too long. Over a number of years, I have visited various congregations where the communion bread was matzos, which had obviously been used over and over again until it was going mouldy. No red spots, but the mould could be tasted. If the communion bread is so important to us, let me suggest that we either make our own and freeze it, getting out each week what is needed, or at least keep the matzos fresh and do not put what is left over back into the box. No one wants to eat mouldy bread, and it certainly is no representation of the body of our Lord.
2. Every week I receive at least one email wanting to know the contact details of one of the congregations. Please note that our website www.churchesofchrist.co.uk gives the details of where our churches are. We try to keep the list as up-to-date as we can so please check the details of your congregation.
3. Jesus may be our assurance of salvation, but he is not our insurance policy if things go wrong. Both in the congregation and our own life we need to keep our insurances up-to-date. Congregation trustees are personally responsible for maintaining the safety of their meeting places, and insurance policies must be maintained. It is also useful for us as individuals to make sure our homes are insured so that funds are available for times of difficult and disaster situations. We must be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves.
4. Whoops! We made a mistake in last months' Christian Worker. Barbara Fisher who is our contact for Naeem Sabeer in Pakistan may be contacted on blfisher888@aol.com Thank you Barbara.
5. PLEASE send your news items in ASAP. Check notices for dates, times, etc, and send as soon as possible by the 21st of the month. The Christian Worker is always emailed out on the first day of the month.
6. If you have any questions, ideas or concerns, please contact me – we love to help.

STORY OF REDEMPTION FILMS UPDATE

As more congregations and individuals are using this free resource, I wanted to give an update on what is happening and what we are looking forward to.

The Story of Redemption films originated from printed material becoming scripted for radio use. They were then made into films for television presentations in Croatia. This has now led to the films and study guides being made available over the internet. The Covid Pandemic then led to studies being conducted over Zoom. This now means that wherever there is an internet connection anyone anywhere in the world can study the Bible with groups and individuals. Whilst this is a paid subscription in the USA, it has been made freely available to those outside of the USA thanks to generous sponsors. This means that those of us in the UK have this resource for free. However, if anyone would like to contribute it will ensure others can have the films made available.

Benefits in the UK

Congregations have used this material in their Sunday Bible classes for adults and youth. Others have used it to teach their mid-week Bible classes. In Northampton the teens and young adults meet on Tuesday evenings over Zoom to watch a film and engage in discussion. The discussions and any questions arising continue in their Sunday Bible class study face to face. Grandparents have found it an engaging way to study with their grandchildren. Providing quality time to spend together and offering a relaxed way to talk easily and openly about their faith.

Individuals are also finding this a beneficial way to study with friends and work colleagues. It has proven to be a good introduction for people who have visited worship services. Inviting visitors to meet up and watch a short film together is somehow quite appealing.

There is room for more studies in the UK – the only thing that would restrict the numbers would be having enough teachers available.

Benefits from the UK around the world

Currently there are three studies each week conducted from the UK with groups of young people in Kenya. We hope to shortly begin studies in India. Imagine studying with people around the world from your desk or kitchen table. There is no need to imagine it – it is already happening! The only restriction will be having enough teachers available.

How about you?

I want to invite you to see what all the fuss is about. We can arrange training over Zoom which you can tune in to and see examples of the films and study guides and how to use them. I am also willing to conduct face-to-face training if there is interest and I am invited to where you are.

You are welcome to join an existing study just to observe, but feel free to join in a study in action. You can see how it operates – but it is basically a Bible study. All you have to know is how to get on Zoom and play a film: it is nothing complicated – even I can do it!

Story of Redemption Films Update

There will be an opportunity to see how to use the website, films and discussion questions on Tuesday, 6th May, at 7.30 pm, which will last no longer than an hour. It will be on Zoom. If you would like to join please request the login details by emailing: northamptonchurchofchrist@gmail.com.

If that time is not convenient and you are interested, please use the same email address to contact me so we can arrange a better time.

In a nutshell:

- You can use this to study with family members
- You can use this to study with visitors to your meeting
- You can use this to study with your congregations Bible study groups
- You can be a teacher for groups that are started around the UK
- You can be a teacher for groups that are established around the world

APPEALS & UPDATES

MYANMAR UPDATE

Several brothers and sisters from the Philippines have gone to help out in this broken country. There are congregations of those we know there who constantly go through difficult times. As reported last month £2000 was sent from the CW straight away.

Since then some Christians from India were also anxious to help out and with funds raised we have been able to help out with a further £2000. The situation is desperate. The country was literally cut in two by the earthquake – homes and livelihoods were destroyed in a matter of seconds. With the political military leadership in the country no one is safe. Please pray for kindness and mercy. (See photos on next page.)

Trevor Williams

A powerful 7.7 magnitude earthquake has struck Myanmar, devastating the regions of Mandalay. More than 3,000+ lives have been lost till date. and leaving many communities in ruins. The people of Mandalay are in urgent need of help. In times like these, we are called and compelled by love to reach out and care for our neighbours. Thy Neighbour is an initiative of the Christians in Gollaprolu, India to join hands to help and serve the people in Mandalay. Will you please help us help them? Even the smallest act of kindness can bring hope and healing to those caught in a hopeless situation. Thank You.

In Christ,

THE FINAL WORD

We are no members of God's household

"Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow-citizens with God's people and members of God's household."
(Ephesians 2:19)

At the time of writing many of us wander around, wondering what the next item on the news will be that leads us into despair. We see the Roman Catholic church trying to fit into a world where so many people do not know right from wrong. With its long history, which way will this worldwide group go – into deeper tradition or ever-increasing liberalism? The Church of England also has to choose a new leader, and seems to be struggling to find someone who can fit into the job and jump the hoops set out for him.

On the political front, on a daily basis, many wonder what the President of the United States will demand next, and we all wonder how Russia will retaliate. We ask, can there ever be peace in Israel and the nations around it? Many do not even know why they are fighting. Then we go further to countries in Africa or riots in Turkey?

Closer to home, what about Birmingham and the mounds of rubbish, and to our own town councils who struggle to find funds to fill potholes, and hospitals who do not have enough doctors and nurses. Our minds are in a spin, and we cry out, 'Lord, for how long will all this go on?'

Many of the people who read these articles are gentle people who are trying to live a life of faithful service to Jesus, and weave a pathway of peace in a world that does not seem to know where it is supposed to be going. We desperately want Christian marriages to be successful, yet many are not. We want our children to become Christians, but many become weary and turn their backs on Jesus and his people.

The result is that many of us feel alone and like foreigners in our own homes. We seem like aliens, as if we are living in a world where few people recognise us or understand what we are talking about.

We must remember that this is our Father's world. We are fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household. Our traditions are those of Abraham, who walked in faith, and Moses, who led the people across the Red Sea and on to a promised land. There is still need for fire in our bones and the shout of Zion on our lips. Our eyes must see the glory of the Homeland even if it is far beyond Jordan.

There is still healing available through the precious gospel of Jesus, and sins are washed away in his sacred blood. We are no longer foreigners. We are no longer aliens. We are God's people, God's household.

Lord, open the doors of Heaven and let its windows be opened wide that we might be filled with the sunshine of your glory.

God of love, hear our prayer.
